Frequently Asked Questions

Will you be having in-person Sunday services?

Yes. We will offer in-person services on Sunday at our Mount Pleasant site (50 people maximum including worship team and pastors).

Please note: the services will include live music, responsive prayers, sermon on the big screen, and some (socially distanced) interaction. No singing will be permitted at this time.

Will Kids programming be available for the small Sunday services?

No, Tenth Kids programming will not be available at this time. For Tenth Kids online classes and resources, please visit tenth.ca/kids

Will singing be permitted in the small Sunday services?

At this point, out of an abundance of caution, singing will not be permitted.

Will communion be served at the Sunday service?

Not at this time, though we are exploring safe options to include this.

Will the East Van, Kitsilano and UBC sites have small Sunday service gatherings?

At this time, the only site that is open is our Mount Pleasant (MP) site (11. W. 10th Avenue), anyone is welcome to attend a gathering at the MP site. Our East Van will site will open for services starting in mid-July. Each of the sites will continue to hold zoom and in-person events for their communities. For more info contact your site pastor:

What about life groups?

Life groups are encouraged to continue meeting online. For life groups wanting to meet in-person, we recommend all group members refer to the BC government and public health websites for the most-up-to-date information and recommended social distancing requirement.

Will you still have online services?

Yes, our online services will still be available every Sunday on our website, on YouTube and through our Facebook Livestreams for the different sites.
